

1

Questions

Paso a paso

Questions

1. "Qué" (What): Use "qué" to ask about a thing or an idea.
Example: ¿Qué es eso? (What is that?)
2. "Cómo" (How): Use "cómo" to ask about the way something is done or the manner in which something happens.
Example: ¿Cómo se hace esto? (How is this done?)
3. "Cuándo" (When): Use "cuándo" to ask about a specific time or moment.
Example: ¿Cuándo vas a venir? (When are you coming?)
4. "Dónde" (Where): Use "dónde" to ask about a specific location or place.
Example: ¿Dónde está la estación de tren? (Where is the train station?)
5. "Por qué" (Why): Use "por qué" to ask for a reason or explanation.
Example: ¿Por qué no viniste ayer? (Why didn't you come yesterday?)

Questions

Cómo how

Cuál which one

Cuáles which ones

Cuándo when

Cuánto(a) how much/many

Dónde where

Adónde (to) where

De dónde (from) where

Por qué why

Quién who

Con quién (with) whom

De quién (from) whom

Qué what

A qué (at) what

De qué (of) what

Tabla de preguntas

Write a list of five common Spanish verbs (e.g. hablar, comer, escribir, leer, etc.). Then, write five questions for each verb, using the appropriate question word (e.g. ¿Qué?, ¿Cuándo?, ¿Cómo?, etc.).

Mucha suerte

Write ten questions in Spanish, using the present tense and a mix of question words. Make sure to include both yes/no questions (e.g. ¿Hablas español?) and information questions (e.g. ¿De dónde eres?).

Mucha suerte

Write a short conversation in Spanish between two people. One person should ask five questions in the present tense, and the other person should respond appropriately.

Mucha suerte

Write five questions in Spanish that use the present tense and the verb "tener" (to have). Then, write five answers that match the questions.

Mucha suerte

